

Mark Teague

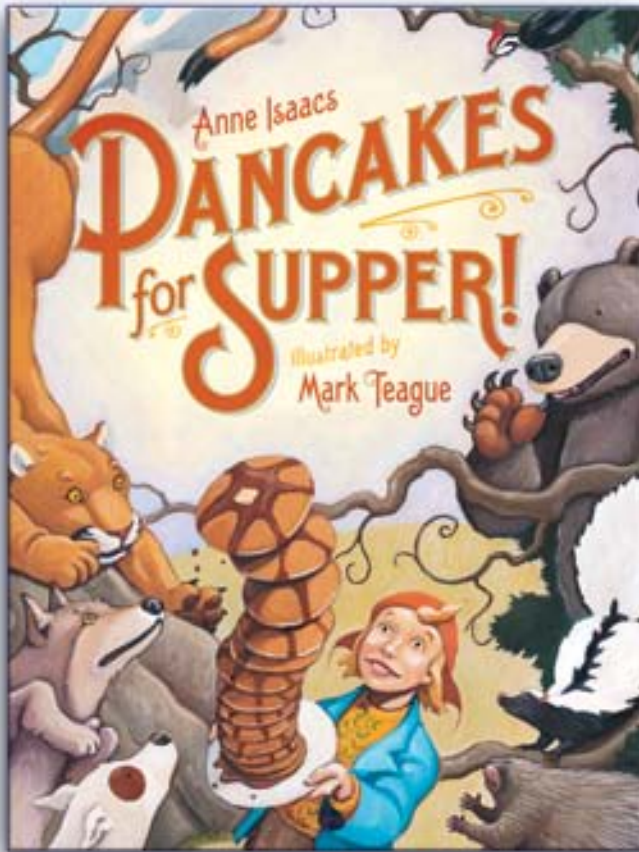

About mark Teague

mark Teague's eureka moment occurred when a move from San Diego to New York City planted the seed for his first picture book, The Trouble with the Johnsons. Each of Teague's books starts as "notebooks full of sketches and scribbles, strange little drawings, and phrases that seem mostly cryptic that suddenly come together," Teague explains. "I got the idea for Dear Mrs. LaRue when I was noodling around with an idea for a story about summer camp and the mournful letter home," he says. "Somehow it got transferred into a dog story, and the summer camp became obedience school."

Teague is perhaps best known for his "How Do Dinosaurs..." books, created with Jane Yolen. He has also collaborated with such critically acclaimed authors as Anne Isaacs, Audrey Wood, and Cynthia Rylant. With Pancakes for Supper! he updates a classic story by matching Caldecott Honor winner Anne Isaacs's rollicking, rhythmic text with hilarious art.

mark Teague, who designed the poster for the 2005 National Children's Book Week, lives in Coxsackie, New York, with his wife, Laura, and his daughters, Lily and Ava.
